Course Introduction	This course introduces some basic ideas of "Western Literature" : genre and historical context, style and theme (or form or content), to help students analyze and appreciate how literary texts convey their meanings in their time. Its main key is a willingness to find in Western Literature the thoughts, ideas and emotions that are relevant to "real" life, so that students can relate the knowledge and experience they have in reading literary texts to the understanding of their society as well as themselves.

The Relevance among Teaching Objectives, Objective Levels and Departmental core competences

I. Objective Levels (select applicable ones) :

- |                         |                                     |                           |
|-------------------------|-------------------------------------|---------------------------|
| (i) Cognitive Domain    | : C1-Remembering, C2-Understanding, | C3-Applying,              |
|                         | C4-Analyzing, C5-Evaluating,        | C6-Creating               |
| (ii) Psychomotor Domain | : P1-Imitation, P2-Mechanism,       | P3-Independent Operation, |
|                         | P4-Linked Operation, P5-Automation, | P6-Origination            |
| (iii) Affective Domain  | : A1-Receiving, A2-Responding,      | A3-Valuing,               |
|                         | A4-Organizing, A5-Characterizing,   | A6-Implementing           |

II. The Relevance among Teaching Objectives, Objective Levels and Departmental core competences :

- (i) Determine the objective level(s) in any one of the three learning domains (cognitive, psychomotor, and affective) corresponding to the teaching objective. Each objective should correspond to the objective level(s) of ONLY ONE of the three domains.
- (ii) If more than one objective levels are applicable for each learning domain, select the highest one only. (For example, if the objective levels for Cognitive Domain include C3, C5, and C6, select C6 only and fill it in the boxes below. The same rule applies to Psychomotor Domain and Affective Domain.)
- (iii) Determine the Departmental core competences that correspond to each teaching objective. Each objective may correspond to one or more Departmental core competences at a time. (For example, if one objective corresponds to three Departmental core competences: A, AD, and BEF, list all of the three in the box.)
