Course Introduction	To understand the history of foreign relations in modern China one must begin from the invasions of the imperialistic powers since the late period of the Ching-Dynasty. A series of defeats has "reshaped" the mentality of the Chinese as well as the way of diplomatic behaviors. The wish for reform made people pursues different ways for "" rescuing China" . Finally the Chinese chose the communism. The new regime, based on both the trauma of the past and the Marxist ideology, has shown a special attitude toward the world and the remaining ROC in Taiwan.
