Course Introduction	This course will emphasize the recent and contemporary political and economic trends, especially the recent Sino-US trade war, CPTPP, RCEP, APEC and other related topics. The Asian financial crisis of 1997 severely impeded growth in the region. On the other hand, China has carried out a series of economic and political reforms since 1978. Its continuous economic growth has made China an important power not only in the entire Asian region but also globally. This course will also discuss the “Belt and Road” initiative: implications for Taiwan, ASEAN and the United States.
