Course Introduction

This course aims for English major freshmen to refine English reading skills and abilities with goals of achieving critical thinking and advancing communicative skills. Covering topics regarding lives of and environment around people in 21 century, students will build on basic reading skills via exploring a variety of text types, not just printed works but also informative photo, charts, and infographics online. Through reading practices, it is hoped that students will gain confidence in reading tasks for both academic purposes as well as future standard language tests.
