Course Introduction	Recent scandals such as Enron indicate us that even in business there' s a lot more at stake than the bottom line. Some sense of ethical behavior is needed as well. In this course, I' ll lecture some of the ethical issues facing international businesses . I will also lead to explore the question, "How can I be a good person and a good businessperson?" as well as the dark side of business ethics.

Requirement		note: Mark of Usual pts refers to the assignments Active participation means making contributions to the “intellectual” conversation. My interest is not based on the “right” or “wrong” , it is based on if you have make a contribution to the development of the issues under study by the class (group), and whether you have moved the class (group) forward. Failure to participate penalizes you and the class in depriving all of us from your insights into the course. That is, you lose the chance to learn from others, and eventually you will lose incentive to learn from the course. To maximize the communication outcomes, students are required to submit individual background information and choose group partners after the first class. I will help to organize your team structure and inform you by the end of the second class. 2 Group Presentation Each group is required to choose one course-related topic to provide oral presentation/debate in the end of this semester. The topic for presentation will be discussed in theclass. Each group’ s presentation shall be limited by 30 minutes. There is no need for the presentation group to submit an extra written-report.
