Course Introduction	As the fourth biggest country with highest Muslim population in the world, Indonesia is rising its influence on Taiwan as well as to the rest of the world. The aim of this course is to make students thoroughly understand Indonesia through local and main-stream perspective of Muslim community—rather than Sino-centric stance of Greater China. The long-term target of the course is to help students comprehend the job market and consumer’ s culture in Indonesia, facilitating students getting appropriate job or investment opportunities in the biggest and fastest-growing economy in Southeast Asia.
