Course Introduction	This course is an introduction to philosophy which would encompass three period which would encompass the ancient, modern and contemporary. Students will be exposed to texts written by different political philosopher and will be asked to engage with these ideas even as we tackle contemporary issues in today's world. Student will also be given an opportunity to delve into non-western systems of thought to compare and contrast with what we would deem as 'traditional'. This is meant also expose students to the basis of politics as we understand it today through political philosophy.
