Course Introduction

Southeast Asia is a rising power and the focus of the world's attention. In response to global competition, in order to cultivate students' international outlook and competitiveness, the goal of this course is to introduce the history of Southeast Asia from a traditional society to a colonial period and then from the chaotic state of independent nation-building to political democracy. An important goal of this course is to understand how SEA countries form a transnational organization - the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) under the circumstances of seeking common ground.
