Course Introduction	This course provides guidance for students to learn and to analyze important historical figures and their contributions to western civilization. The arrangement of this course is based on the general classification of western history – ancient, classical, medieval, and modern eras – and will focus on several important historical figures in each period. This course aims to broaden students’ horizons. History is not just what happened in the past; history could be our teacher and we could find answers to the questions and problems we have today.
